

- Rosalynn Carter, "A Meeting of the Minds."
- Ricard G. Frank, "Toward Win-Win Conclusions."
- Jean Campbell, "Alone in the Crowd."
- Dan Conti, Robert McGarrah, Jr., David Manning, Ian Shaffer, Sue Smith, and Jean LeMasurier, "Considerations of Employees/Consumers."
- Mary Jane England, "The Work Place of the Future."
- Terrell Womack, "The Business Tightrope."
- Joel Slack, Bernard Arons, Mark Knight, Sharon Miller, and Suzanne Gelber, "Considerations of Employers/Purchasers."
- Joe Thompson, Cathy Climo, George Cobbs, John Romeo, David Pruitt, and Ruth Hughes, "Reports from the Work Groups: The Work Place: Healthy or Harmful?"
- Richard Surles, "A Healthier Work Force Through Managed Care."
- Rosalynn Carter, "In Closing."
- John J. Gates and Judy Fitzgerald, "Post-Script."

"Privacy and Confidentiality, and the Appropriate Use of Mental Health Information," November 19-20, 1997, Atlanta, GA. Attended by approximately 180 leaders representing consumer, family, provider, payer, information technology, law, and government perspectives. Six papers and presentations were given:

- John Pettila, "Legal and Ethical Issues in Protecting the Privacy of Behavioral Health Care Information."
- Robert Gellman, "Will Technology Help or Hurt in the Struggle for Health Privacy?"
- Marcia Goin, "Clinical Issues."
- Gary Melton, "Privacy Issues in Child Mental Health Services."
- Jean Campbell, "Privacy and Confidentiality of Behavioral Health Care Records: The Consumer Perspective."
- Harriet P. Lefley, "Perspectives of Family members Regarding Confidentiality and Mental Illness."

Presentations

Rosalynn Carter and John J. Gates, "Presentation of 1996 Symposium Results," The Carter Center Board of Councilors, Atlanta, GA, January 30, 1997. Attended by 200 CEOs in Atlanta business community.

Rosalynn Carter, keynote address at the Tenth Annual Benefits Management Forum and Expo, Atlanta, GA, April, 30, 1997.

Print Coverage

"Inclusion of Mental Illness in Health Care Reform Legislation," Letter to the Editor, Atlanta Journal-Constitution, October 3, 1995.

Article about the 12th Annual Rosalynn Carter Symposium on Mental Health, Atlanta Journal-Constitution, November 21, 1996.